GIRL SCOUTS ANNOUNCE 2019 TAKE THE LEAD GREATER PHILADELPHIA HONOREES
Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania Girls to Present Awards at Signature Fundraising Event

PHILADELPHIA (NOVEMBER 14, 2018) — Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania (GSEP) is hosting its annual Take the Lead Greater Philadelphia event, where it will recognize four distinguished women from the community, and highlight girl leadership. Take the Lead is a girl-led program that features GSEP’s mission to build girls of courage, confidence, and character, while honoring women leaders whose work and achievements exemplify these values.

“We look forward to our Take the Lead program every year,” said Kim E. Fraites-Dow, Chief Executive Officer of GSEP. “This signature fundraising event honors our community’s most distinguished women whose leadership and professional achievements make a significant impact in our region, and on the lives of our close to 40,000 girls and 15,000 adult volunteers.”

Unique to GSEP, Take the Lead enables girls and women from the community to forge long-lasting mentoring relationships designed to teach girls the skills they’ll need to become the leaders of tomorrow. Four deserving high school aged Girl Scouts will have the opportunity to shadow an honoree for a day, reflect on the experience, and present her with a Take the Lead award at the event, attended by 500+ community leaders.

This year, GSEP will recognize the following women:

2019 Take the Lead Greater Philadelphia Honorees

- Madeline Bell, President & CEO, Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia
- Carolina DiGiorgio, President & CEO, Congreso de Latinos Unidos
- Dalila Wilson-Scott, SVP, Community Impact, Comcast Corporation
- Jami Wintz McKeon, Chair, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP

Event Co-chairs for the 2019 Take the Lead event are Dianne Rotwitt, Philanthropist and GSEP Board Member, and Kate Shields, CEO, Vault Communications.

Take the Lead Greater Philadelphia honorees will be celebrated at a special girl-led ceremony on Tuesday, March 5, 2019 at the Crystal Tea Room. In addition to a seated dinner, guests can enjoy a Girl Scout cookie, beer and wine pairing and will have the opportunity to take part in a paddle raise campership auction to help send girls to Girl Scout camp. For more information about Take the Lead sponsorships, advertising and tickets, visit www.gsep.org/takethelead or call 215-948-5123.

About Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania

Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania (GSEP) is the largest girl-serving organization in Pennsylvania and builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place. GSEP serves close to 40,000 girls in partnership with more than 15,000 adult volunteers in Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Delaware, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton and Philadelphia counties.
