What's the difference between a proposal & a discussion topic?

Differences between Discussion Topics and Proposals

Discussion topics* are opportunities for delegates and alternates to influence future National Board* or National Council action.

- ☐ Conversation(s) about topics important to the future of our Movement that enable us to get delegate input earlier
- ☐ Topics shaped by NCS Agenda Influencing Process, GSUSA, or National Board
- ☐ Held virtually throughout the triennium or at a National Council Session (NCS)
- ☐ Less structure, more input for future actions

Proposals are opportunities for delegates to deliberate and take immediate action through a vote

- ☐ Formal education and deliberation (hearing varied viewpoints) before taking action
- ☐ Submitted by the National Board or through the NCS Agenda Influencing Process by local councils
- ☐ The National Council must be formally “in session” to take action
- ☐ Decision-making is structured

*Discussion topics fulfill delegates' role to give “guidance to the National Board upon general lines of direction of the Movement and program.” - Article V., Sec. 2, GSUSA Constitution

Alternate delegates (those prepared to serve should a vacancy occur) may participate in discussion topics; alternate delegates may not discuss or vote on proposals.

National Board uses decision influencing input gathered in discussion topics to inform decision making or to shape recommendations it provides to the National Council.

2026 NCS Discussion Topic #1:

Revolutionize Engagement: Girl Scouts Her Way

includes themes from the following council-originated agenda items:

- Amending the Credentials Section to Allow Girls Age Five to be Members
- Proposal to Establish a National Pilot for Daisy Sprouts

2026 NCS Discussion Topic #2:

Amplify Impact: Building Connections with Our Communities

- Advancing Inclusivity Discussion Topic
- Inclusivity in Girl Scouting Discussion Topic
- Proposal to Amend the Preamble of the Constitution to Add ‘Inclusivity’ to ‘Diversity, Pluralism, and Anti-Racism’
- Proposal to Expand the Definition of Girl Scout in the Membership Requirements Section of the Credentials
