

Access My Account

- I activated my account, but have forgotten my log in password.
Click on "forgot password" on the home page in the login box. You will need your username and email address.
- I activated my account, but have forgotten my username.
Click on "forgot username" on the home page in the login box. Enter your member ID, if known, or your name and email address.
- How do I login to register my daughter/myself?
To activate another account, make sure you have logged out of the first account. Check the upper right-hand corner. Whoever's name is showing in the corner is the active member. Log out and log back in to register the next person.

This is what the upper-right hand corner of the web site looks like if a member is logged-in. You must log out to login another member.

This is what the upper-right hand corner of the web site looks like if a member is NOT logged-in. You may login another member.

