

Girl Scouts
at home

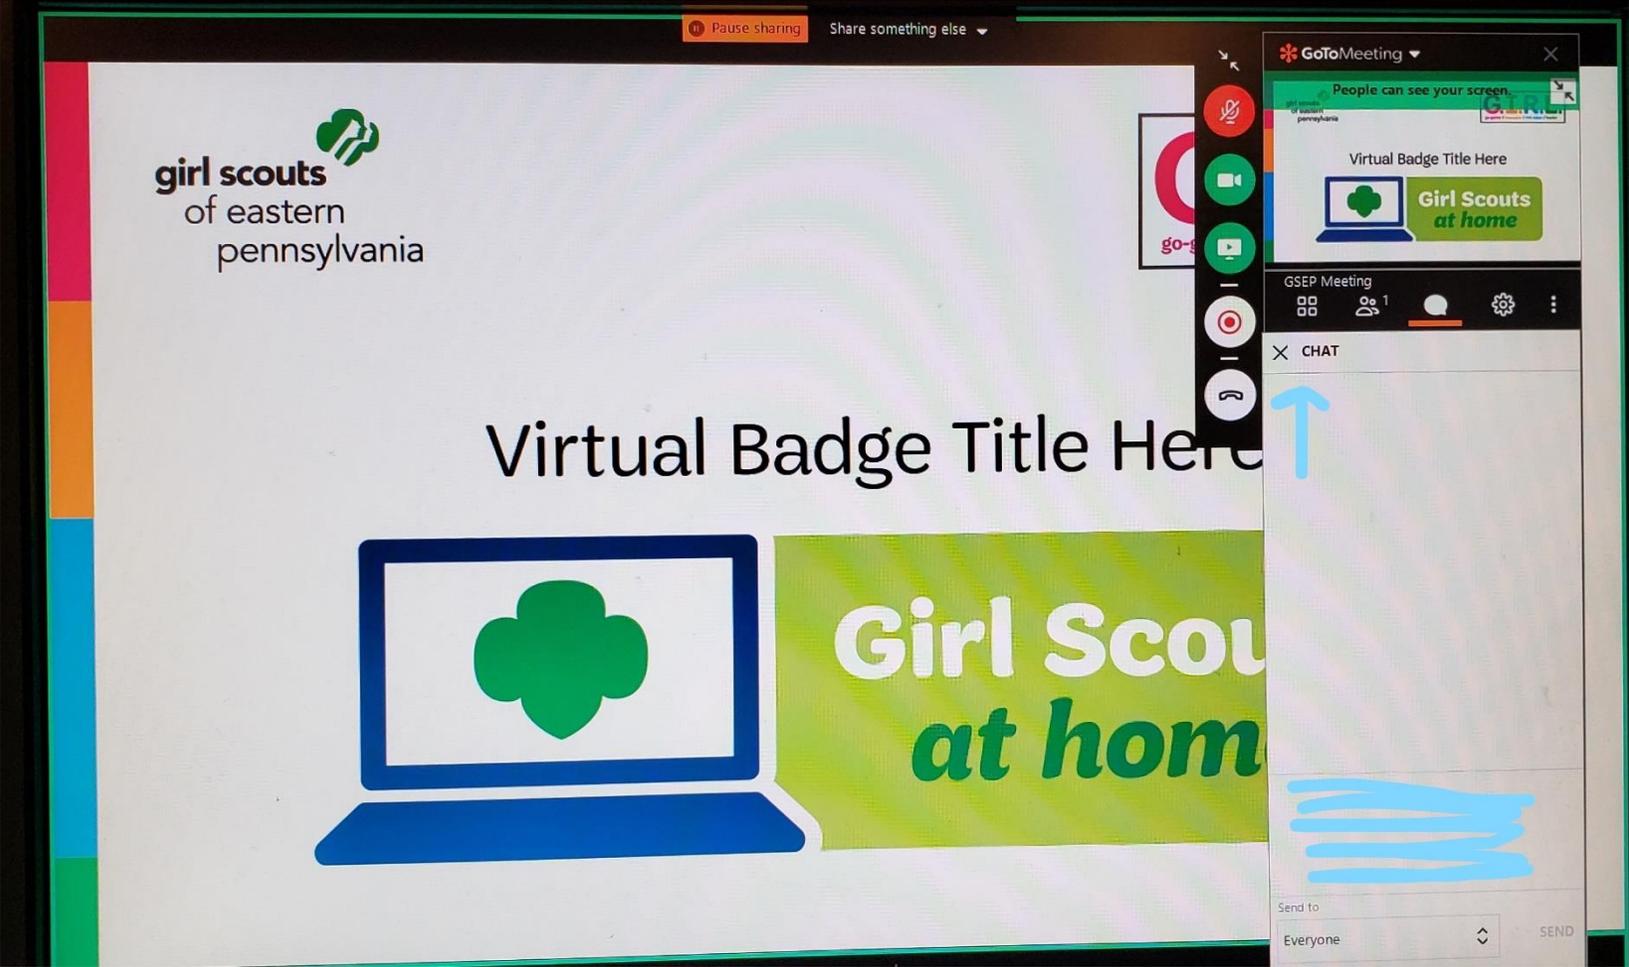

Welcome to the story of Gloria, the Morning Glory “How to Respect Myself & Others”

HI GIRL SCOUTS!!
THANK YOU FOR JOINING US TODAY!!

How do Virtual Meetings work?

girl scouts
north carolina
coastal pines

LET'S START OUT BY SAYING THE GIRL SCOUT PROMISE & LAW:

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout
Law.

The Girl Scout Law:

I will do my best to be:

- Honest and fair
- Friendly and helpful
- Considerate and caring
- Courageous and strong
- And responsible for what I say and do
- And to respect myself and others
- Respect authority
- Use resources wisely
- Make the world a better place
- And to be a sister to every Girl Scout

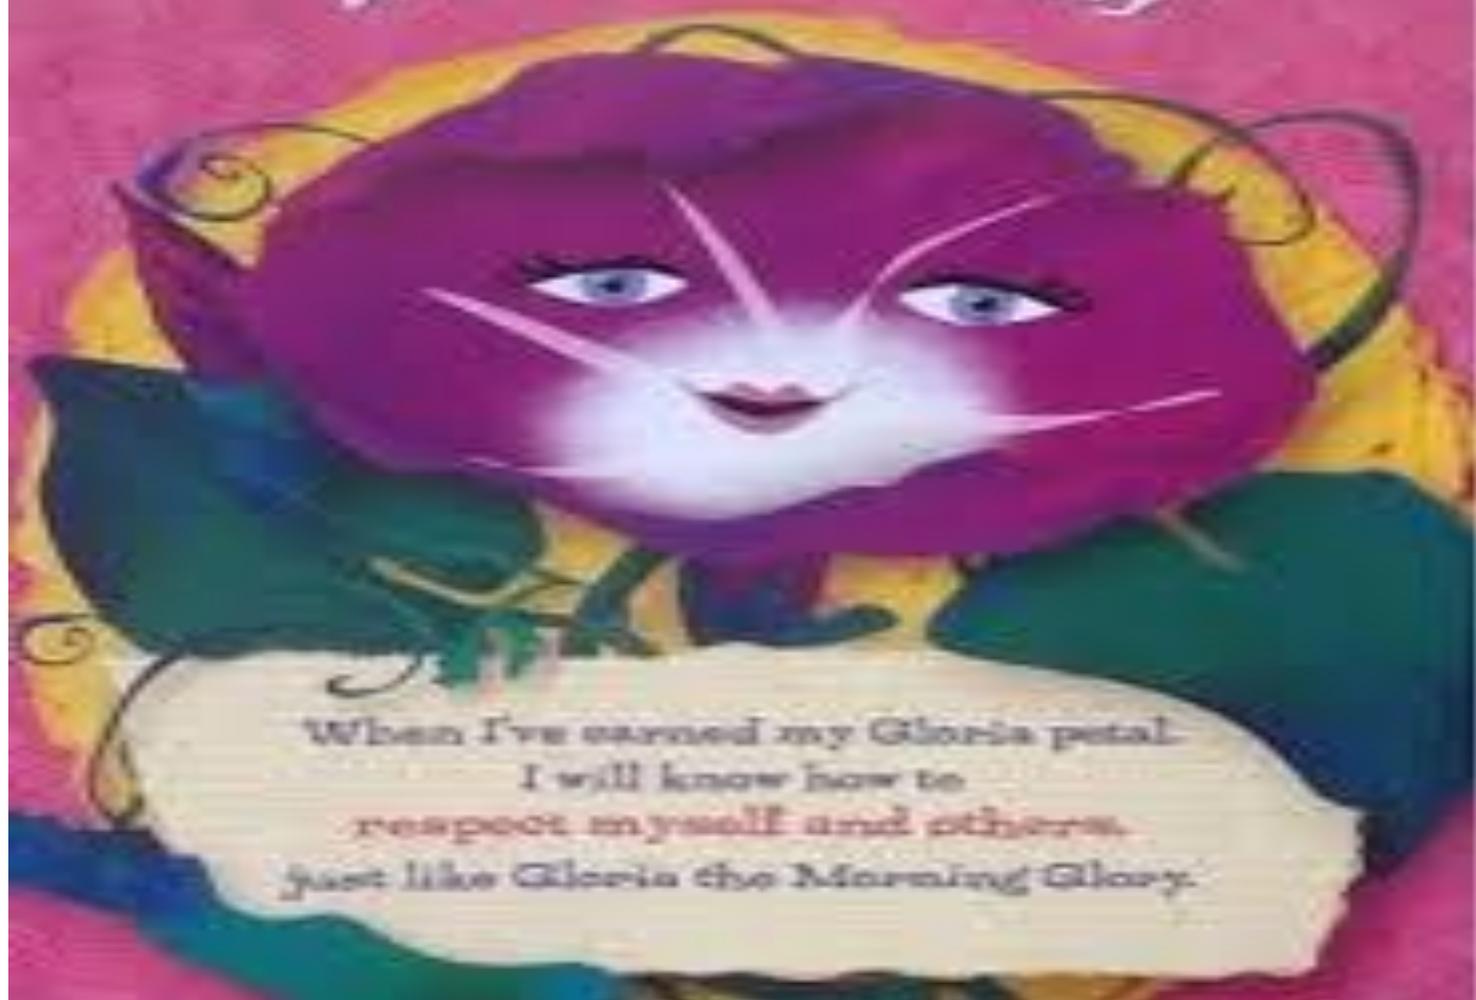

TIME TO REFLECT...

- Does the Girl Scout Law mention the word respect?
- When you do think the word respect means?
- Are there people in your life that you respect?

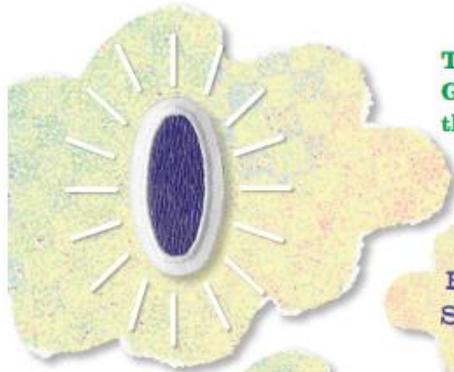

Gloria's Story

A Surprise for Lily

When I've earned my Gloria petal,
I will know how to
respect myself and others,
just like Gloria the Morning Glory.

To earn your Gloria petal, do these three things.

1.

Enjoy "Gloria's Story," then talk about it

2.

Invite an older Girl Scout to talk to your group about ways to respect yourself and others

3.

Practice respecting yourself and others

Gloria's Story

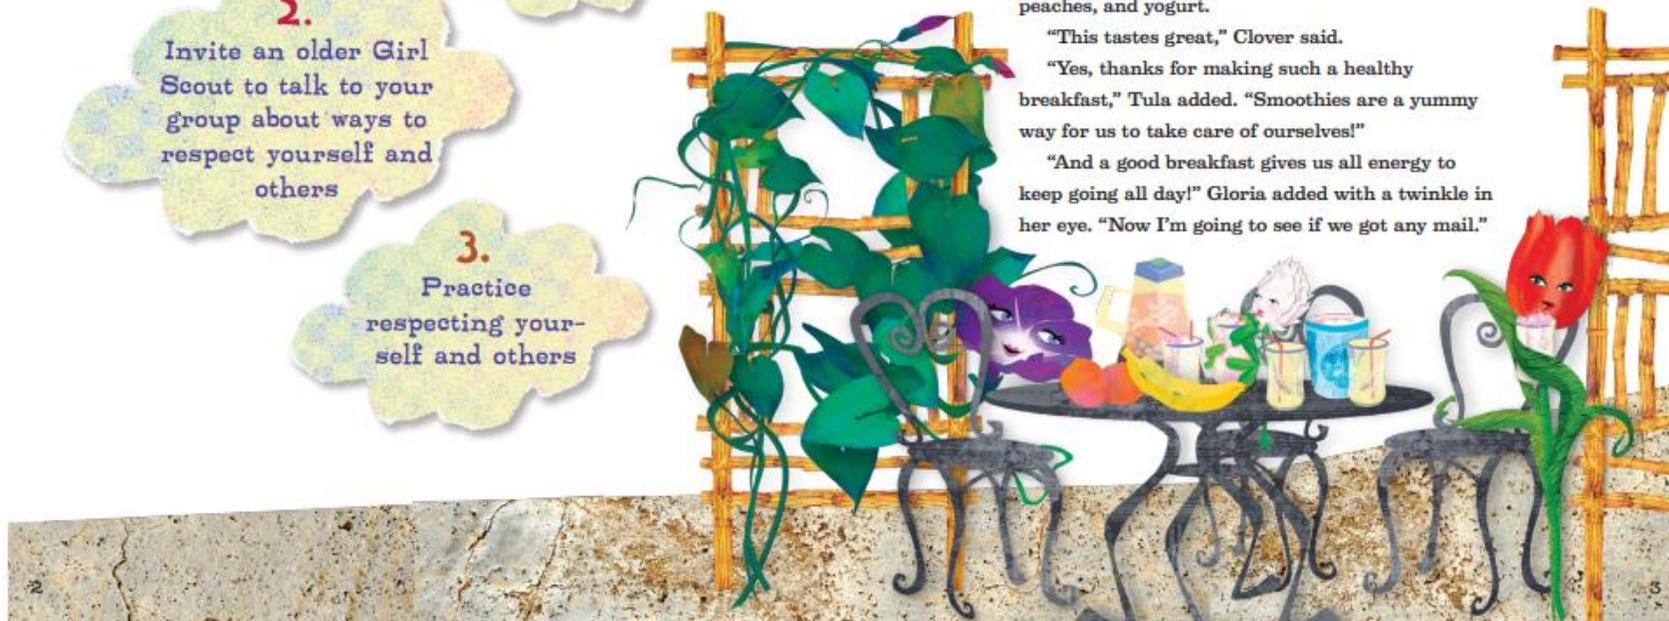

A Surprise for Lily

One morning, the Flower Friends gathered around the picnic table for breakfast. Gloria had made smoothies for everyone with bananas, peaches, and yogurt.

"This tastes great," Clover said.

"Yes, thanks for making such a healthy breakfast," Tula added. "Smoothies are a yummy way for us to take care of ourselves!"

"And a good breakfast gives us all energy to keep going all day!" Gloria added with a twinkle in her eye. "Now I'm going to see if we got any mail."

When Gloria opened the mailbox, she found a pretty yellow envelope addressed to the Flower Friends at the Daisy Flower Garden.

"Look, everyone," she called out. "We got a letter today. I wonder what it says?"

Gloria opened the envelope and read the note inside.

"Mrs. Wildflower is having a surprise party for our friend Lily!" she said.

"We're supposed to be there at two o'clock."

"That sounds like so much fun!" Mari said.

"I hope there's dancing," Lupe said.

"I can't wait!" Gerri added. "Let's go right now."

But Gloria shook her head. "We should look nice when we go to a party," she said. "Let's take the time to get ready."

"First, let's brush our teeth," Gloria said.

Everyone grabbed their toothbrushes. When they were finished, their teeth were shiny and gleaming.

"Now, let's straighten our petals and wash our faces," Gloria suggested.

The Flower Friends used a special comb to make sure their petals were straight. Then they took turns washing their faces in fresh, clean rainwater.

When they were done, they all looked bright and shining and happy!

Lupe pulled up in her petal-powered car.

"Come on," she called.

"I'll drive us to the party."

The Flower Friends hopped into the car and fastened their seat belts.

Lupe started the car. They all used petal power to take off and arrived at Mrs. Wildflower's house right on time.

"Thanks for driving, Lupe," Gloria said. "It's always good to be on time when you're invited to a party—especially when you want to surprise someone!"

They went inside. A few minutes later, Lily came in.

"Surprise!" they shouted.
"Happy Birthday!"

Lily beamed. "Wow! Thank you for remembering my birthday!"

"And thank you for inviting us, Mrs. Wildflower!" Gloria said. "We're going to have so much fun!"

The End

SO WHAT DID YOU THINK OF THE STORY?

How did Gloria show that she had respect for herself?

How did she show she had respect for others?

How do you show you have respect for yourself and others?

AS GIRL SCOUTS, WE LIKE TO REMEMBER.....

Respecting yourself means putting your best foot forward and taking good care of yourself. Respecting others means having good manners and speaking politely.

Let's play a manners game.

THE MANNERS GAME

- Chew with your mouth open.
- Greet someone by saying hello
- Say please and thank you
- Stick out your tongue at someone near you
- Put your napkin on your lap
- Make funny noises while drinking a drink
- Grab someone else's food from their plate
- Holding the door open for another person
- Wishing another person to have a Good Day

HOW DID YOU DO??

Are there more things that show respect to yourself and others that I didn't call out?

How can you show good manners at home and school?

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY-SA-NC

TAKE ACTION IN YOUR COMMUNITY

- One important thing Girl Scouts do is to help make the world a better place. As you go through Girl Scouting, you'll come up with a Take Action Project. Taking Action means finding someone or something that needs help, coming up with a plan to help, and then doing it!
- Do you think that thanking people is important? Do you think that it's helpful to people when someone says, "Thank you to them?"

Our Take Action project for the Gloria Petal will be to make a “Thank You” card for someone in your community

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY-NC-ND

LET'S FORM OUR FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE AGAIN....

- Now that we've acted out Gloria's Story, played a manners game, and made a thank-you card for someone in your community, you've learned how to show respect for yourself and others.
- What are some ways you can practice these things at home?
- How about at school?
- Now let's go around the circle and each person say one thing you will do to show respect for yourself and others It can be anything! Just name one thing and make a pledge right here that you will carry this out!

Congratulations! You have earned your Gloria petal!

- Now, that we are gathered in a circle, hold hands, and say the seventh line of the Girl Scout Law. This is Gloria's line: I will do my best to show respect to myself and others.*
- Wear the petals on your tunic or vest to remind you to show respect to yourself and others!*

MEETING CLOSE

We're having fun and sharing,
each and every day!

I'm a Girl Scout Daisy,
Hip, hip, hooray!

