Jami Wintz McKeon is the Chair of Morgan Lewis, providing strategic direction to the largest law firm in the world led by a woman. Under her leadership Morgan Lewis has grown into one of the principal global providers of legal services, assisting clients throughout the United States, Asia, Europe, and the Middle East. While Chair, she has continued her own legal practice counseling Fortune 100 companies—particularly those in the financial services and technology industries—on complex litigation and investigations. Jami, who was reelected unanimously in 2018 to lead the firm for a second five-year term, has made exceptional client service the centerpiece of her work and her administration of the firm, and she is long-time advocate of diversity within the legal industry.

Jami has addressed numerous premier leadership conferences and industry events, including such recent gatherings as the American Banker's Mentor Factor Women's Conference, the Financial Times' Innovative Lawyers North America Awards ceremony, the Global Law Firm Leaders Conference, the Big Law Business Summit hosted by Bloomberg BNA, and the Center for Women in Law's Power Summit on Law and Leadership. Her many awards and recognitions include a Financial Times Special Achievement Award, The American Red Cross Lifetime Achievement Award, the United Way Women's Leadership Initiative Award, and being named a Philadelphia Business Hall of Fame Icon by The Philadelphia Inquirer and a top 100 Influencer: Law by The Business Journals. She is on the Board of the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts in Philadelphia, and is a member of the Advisory Board of the Harvard Law School Center on the Legal Profession. She resides with her husband and family in the Philadelphia area.
