4. How do you (or how do you want to) give back to Girl Scouts?

6 years ago, I asked my husband to gift me my GS Lifetime Membership

I have been a Brownie, Junior, and Cadette Leader. I loved Cadettes best. I

I came from a home life that was not good. When I got into Girl Scouts as an adult, I was asked to be a Service Unit Manager. I learned that I could do things, and I could offer people skills. I became a whole person, and it is who I am today. I spread my wings! As a girl, we were encouraged to do

I was a leader for years and a trainer. I taught adults so they could teach their girls. I fell in love with training and teaching others. I enjoy hearing from others who were in my past trainings. I love camp and camping. Girl Scouts is where I can be who I am. I give back through the committees I am on. I love being with people and meeting new people. I learned I can

I attended the Edith Macy Training Center as an adult. I took an outdoor cooking class. I met people from all over the country. My Cadette troop

4. How do you (or how do you want to) give back to Girl Scouts? I am not giving as much now to Girl Scouts, but when I see an opportunity to share some of my skills, I will offer them and see who will take them. I am cleaning out much of my stuff and will try to share it when possible. 5. Share one favorite Girl Scouts memory! I had some outstanding older girls in the 90's, they were in charge of the Senior troop, as they said, I was there to advise them, they made me proud.
