Your Year of Opportunity

You are a source of inspiration.

As a troop leader or troop volunteer, you might:

- Lead regular meetings.
- Help your troop earn badges.
- Guide them on a nature walk.
- Support them with their Girl Scout Cookie business.
- Show them a new science experiment.
- Share your own interests and skills.
- Be a kind, caring, judgment-free mentor.

You are part of a community.

You're not alone! Your local council and fellow volunteers will be there for you every step of the way. You'll always have access to activity guides, toolkits, and other resources to help you plan an incredible year.

You make a difference.

Think back to when you were a kid. Who was that one special adult who made your life brighter? Maybe it was a coach, a teacher, or a Girl Scout troop leader. Now, it's your turn.

You lead the way.

When you help girls build confidence, find their voice, and pursue their dreams, the impact is local yet far-reaching; immediate yet long-lasting. (And no—you don't need to have a child of your own to be a volunteer.)

You have our support.
