

It's time to press play and we want more girls in the game!

Here are some ways you can support GSEP recruitment efforts with the push of a few buttons.

Visit gsep.org and click “Volunteers” then “Volunteer Resources” to find recruitment fliers.

Download and print fliers and post them:

- ◆ In local businesses (coffee shops, grocery stores, etc.)
- ◆ At the local library
- ◆ Community Boards
- ◆ Real Estate offices
- ◆ In your local school(s)
- ◆ Post Office
- ◆ Medical offices
- ◆ Gyms
- ◆ Your ideas here!

**Always be sure to ask permission.*

Download and post fliers online, on pages like:

- ◆ Your school's online platform (you may have to inquire about submissions)
- ◆ Community events pages on local news websites, (like patch.com for example)
- ◆ Facebook pages (yours, your family's, your neighborhood's, “MomAdvice” (Delco, Chester) etc.)
- ◆ Faith-based pages (local churches, mosques, and synagogues)
- ◆ “Mommy blogs”
- ◆ Home School groups
- ◆ Your ideas here!

On the GSEP Volunteer Resources page, you'll also find a “Why Girl Scouts” one-pager you can share, too.

Get Social

Use the social media toolkit provided under Volunteer Resources for tips and sample social posts or re-share & re-tweet Girl Scouts of Eastern PA's posts. Simply search for Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania and press “follow.”

Where should you post?

- ◆ On your personal social media pages (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter)
- ◆ In your neighborhood Facebook groups
- ◆ On your school's community pages (PTA, PTO, Mommy and Me Blogs, “Parents of the Class of...” etc.)
